

ASH WEEKLY

Week 1 — Monday 23rd March to Friday 27th March

Miss Claridge's update:

Hello Ash Class! I am so incredibly proud of the work which has been produced in Week 1. You have been working very hard and I have LOVED receiving your emails and pictures. This mini newsletter will celebrate some of those things. If you'd like to try and get yourself in next week's newsletter, remember to get in contact with me at:
eclaridge@chesterton.oxon.sch.uk

Speed Tables Success!

Special mention to Oliver who has worked very hard on his silver speed tables. Well done!

Learning Power Achievers!

Louis, I would like to give you a learning power for 'Try Your Best'. He has been super busy weighing & baking, going on Athletics and trying his hand at drawing and painting.

Certificate Winners!

Well done to Luca and Bella for their certificates on Friday 27th March. Be sure to check out the website this Friday to see the next winners being revealed.

Great Ash class bake off:

Well the star baker for Week 1 has got to be William's delicious treats—they sure made my mouth water!

Reading Raffle Update!

Remember to share when you reach a milestone with Mrs Salter.
Congratulations to Alexander on reaching 75 Nights!

Lily's beautiful picture and message to me.

Esme getting stuck into one of the Maths activities with a smile on her face!

Snapshot

Here are a couple of my favourite snaps from the week:

C.J. has been working hard on his Maths!

William has made a Stone Age scene made of Lego to accompany his story..

Ted has been researching about Palm Sunday in preparation for Easter.

What else have Ash been up to?

Joseph followed a recipe in one his Geology books to make fossils.

Barney & Harry have been enjoying the great outdoors!
