

ASH WEEKLY

Week 2 — Monday 30th March to Friday 3rd April

Miss Claridge's update:

Well this wasn't quite the week we had intended! Most of us from Ash & Apple this week would have been on our residential to Conover. But our time will come and it will be bigger and better than ever! I hope you all have a restful Easter and stay safe.

Remember to get in contact with me at:
eclaridge@chesterton.oxon.sch.uk

Massive birthday shout out to Lily.G and Frank. I know your birthdays weren't exactly what you had planned, but I'm sure your both had an equally special day! You're both going to rock at being 8!

Certificate Winners!

Congratulations to Ash class Gold certificate winners this term:

Sara and Herbie.

Great Ash class bake off:

Well the star baker for Week 2, drumroll please

.....

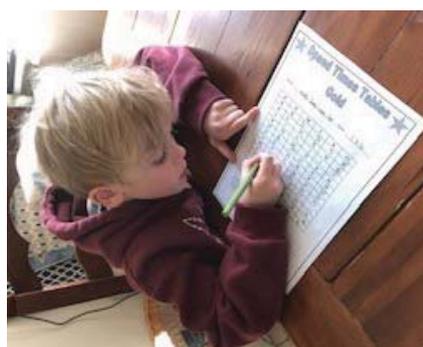

Sophie for her dairy-free Yorkie Puds!

Reading Raffle Update!

Remember to share when you reach a milestone with Mrs Salter.

Congratulations to:
Joseph- 75 nights
Ruby& Herbie- 100 nights
Ted- 125 nights
Bella & Frank- 150 nights
Sophie- 175 & 200 nights
Emin & Eleanor- 200 nights

Meriel working hard on the land!

Elissa has impressed me with her efforts in creating a well presented bar graph – it was great to hear how proud you were and so you should be!

Sara has been writing her Spring poem. I can't wait to read it Sara!

What else have Ash been up to?

Emin has been busy working on his daily tasks: homework, baking and helping round the house.

Special mention to Sophie (& Jack) for keeping up their super efforts in running club! 20 laps in the garden this week!

Loving the personalised apron Herbie!

Ted has created a tomb in preparation for the Easter celebration.