

ASH WEEKLY

Week 4—Monday 27th April to Friday 1st May

Miss Claridge's update:

Hi Ash class, this week has been a little tricky as I really am missing all of your smiley faces and I know some of you are finding it particularly hard not seeing your friends. Keep on smiling and stay positive!

If you'd like to try and get yourself in next week's newsletter, remember to get in contact with me at:
eclaridge@chesterton.oxon.sch.uk

Speed Tables Success!

Special mention to Alexander who been working incredibly hard on his Speed tables!

Healthy bodies- healthy minds

Very impressed by your efforts with the healthy eating theme this week!

Certificate Winners!

Well done to Joseph and Harry for their certificates on Friday 1st May.

Be sure to check out the website this Friday to see the next winners.

Great Ash class bake off:

Well the star baker for Week 5 has got to be Eleanor for her scrummy lasagne packed full of vegetables.

Reading Raffle Update!

Remember to share when you reach a milestone with Mrs Salter.

Congratulations:

Alexander- 100 nights

C.J.— 125 nights

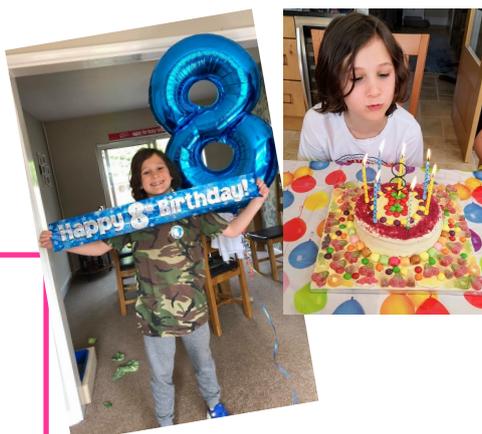

Ted- 150 nights

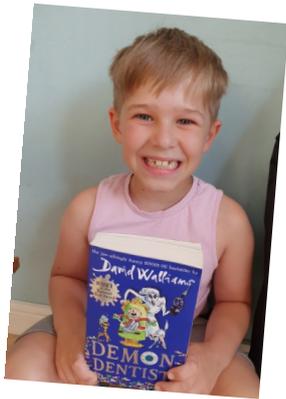

Bella- 175 nights

Harold- 200 nights

Birthday shout out to William

Happy 8th Birthday William!
Looks like you had super day!

C.J. and Harold have been getting their heads stuck into books this week and contributing towards their reading nights.

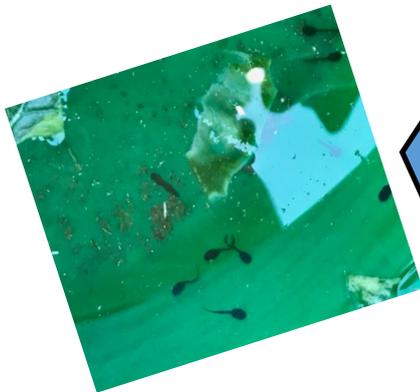

Sophie made a beautiful rainbow fruit salad.

Lily has been in the kitchen baking some tasty treats.

What else have Ash been up to?

Harry collected some frogspawn a couple of weeks ago and now currently has an abundance of tadpoles. Looking forward to a another frog update—it's going to be ribbetting!

Frank has been picking some beautiful, fresh rhubarb which he made a relish with.

Meriel and her sister have made an impressive den!

Miss Claridge baked some brownies which tasted delicious! Especially warmed up with some ice cream.
