

ASH WEEKLY

Week 5 – Monday 4th May to Friday 8th May

Miss Claridge's update:

Hello lovely Ash class! Welcome to our VE day special edition of the newsletter! Well this week was rather exciting see some of your faces on video calls. Once again, I am so proud of your home learning efforts – another week has passed with you working so hard. I have particularly loved hearing how active you all have been!

If you'd like to try and get yourself in next week's newsletter, remember to get in contact with me at: eclaridge@chesterton.oxon.sch.uk

Reading nights

Remember to let Mrs Salter know if you have reached a reading milestone.

Certificate Winners!

Well done to Louis and Alexander for their certificates on Friday 1st May.

Be sure to check out the website this Friday to see the next winners.

Special mention

Birthday shout out to Esme!
Hope you had a lovely day!

VE Day celebrations:

Reminder!!!!

Don't forget to send in your video clips of the strictly come dancing routine from the Big Night In to Mr Horner:

head.3082@chesterton.oxon.sch.uk

All video clips must be submitted by Friday 15th May

Any clips sent in will score house points for your team. The more clips you record, the more house points!

Learning powers:

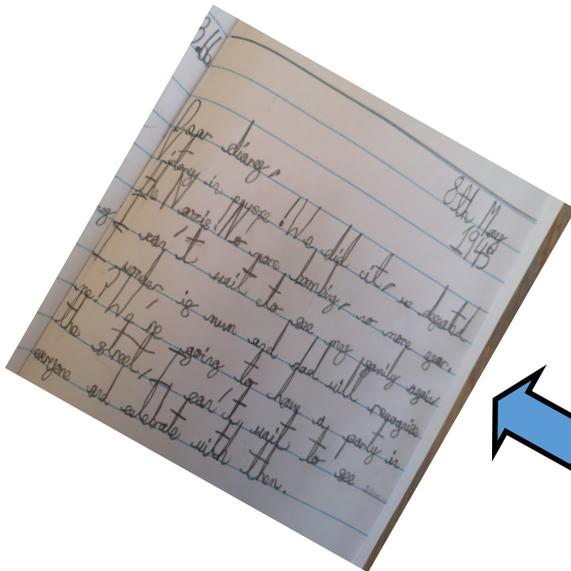

This week, I am awarding William and Manny an 'Improve Things' learning power, both for your devotion to you handwriting. Well done boys!

Harold ran 10 km on Wednesday! Mr Horner and Mrs Rotherham will be particularly proud of your achievement!

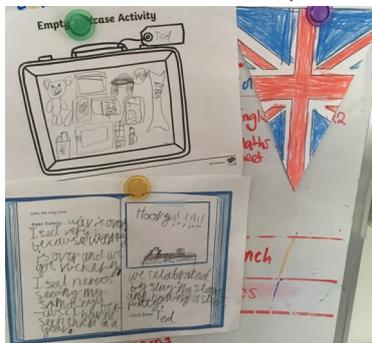

Manny has been learning about the human body and completed some fantastic writing!

Ted and Eleanor have completed some thoughtful English work with their VE day writing.

What else have Ash been up to?

Esme has been enjoying her daily exercise on her bike, wearing her new helmet she got for her birthday.

William and his brother have been testing their gardening skills.

This week, Frank read Stubby by Michael Foreman based on a true story about the friendship between a soldier and dog of war. Very fitting for this week's VE day theme!
