

ASH WEEKLY

Week 6—Monday 11th May to Friday 15th May

Miss Claridge's update:

Hello Ash Class, well another week of home learning has passed and yet again you have continued to show such dedication and enthusiasm to your work. I have loved having emails pinging in, particularly with images of your fantastic sea creatures! You are making me so incredibly proud.

Remember to get in contact with me at:
eclaridge@chesterton.oxon.sch.uk

Don't forget how to gain house points!

Remember you can earn house points for your speed tables success, completing a book review, filling your Independent Learning Power wheel and when you are awarded a Well Done or Values certificate.

The end of year house cup is all to play for!

Certificate Winners!

Well done to Meriel and Emin for their certificates on Friday 15th May.

Be sure to check out the website this Friday to see the next winners.

Reading Raffle Update!

Remember to share when you reach a milestone with Mrs Salter.

Congratulations:
Alexander—125 nights
Frank - 175 nights
William - 200 nights
Sophie - 200 nights

Birthday shout out!

Happy 8th Birthday Elissa!
Hope you had a wonderful day celebrating!

Skills of the week:
Frank is learning to play
the bongos!

Skills of the week:
Harry has learnt
how to ride a bike!
Super achievement!

That deserves a
'Perseverance'
Learning Power!

Skills of the week:
Very impressed to
hear that Harold
is learning to
write with a quill
and ink!

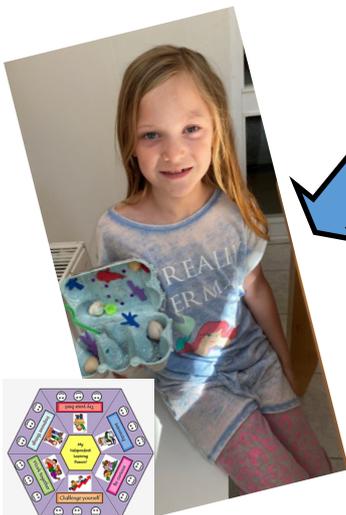

Skills of the week:
Sophie managed
to go deep sea
diving despite being in lockdown!

Our newest member of Ash
Class, Emilia has been completing online martial arts lessons 3 times a week! I think you'll agree, Emilia certainly looks the part! You've earnt yourself a Learning Power for trying your best in these sessions.

What else
have Ash
been up to?

Bella has made an ocean egg
box and has coordinated her outfit to fit with the theme!
Bella has also earnt herself an Independent Learning Power
for working together - It has been lovely to hear how helpful
you've been around the house.

Joseph has made a
fantastic under the water scene. Follow
this link to his YouTube channel to see it! It's impressive!
