Rowan Class' 'In Lockdown' Poem

Before Lockdown...

We went on weekends to the seaside. (Sophia)
We used to go to cinemas and theme parks. (Sophie)
We could play with our friends whenever we wanted - we were free! (Herbie)

During the Summer Lockdown...

People stuffed their homes to the brim with loo rolls. (Finlay)
Walks were had. (Meriel)
Friends and family—we have missed you. (Ted)
People bought trampolines and started bouncing. (Finlay)
There was missing out on brilliant barbecues with fantastic family and friends. (CJ)
It was healthy to be in the fresh air and nature started to heal. (Willow)
The scorching, shimmering sun shone down on our holiday walks together, leaving behind our boring routine, we hoped forever. (Oliver)

While in Winter Lockdown...

Hot Chocolate was drunk. (Meriel)
An unusual Christmas and families were alone, locked behind their doors with only people to phone. (Alexander)
It makes me sad that I've not seen my family for a long time. (Louis)
The fluffy flakes of snow falling to the ground,
the crunching of footsteps through icy white snow,
hot chocolate, warm showers, snuggled by the fire,
taking part in home discos, making many memories. (Elissa)
School in my cage-like home. (Evie)
Freezing like ice on the tremendous trampoline, jumping round with Caden and Lily-Pip making them scream (CJ)

After lockdown...

I will travel to Italy to swim in the sea. (Sara)
I want to visit an arcade, press the buttons and play the games. (William)
I will visit the water park. (Eleanor)
I can't wait to go out with my family more once this pandemic is over. (Hallie)
I will visit my family again. (Esme)
I can't wait to have a party because it's not Covid anymore. (Emilia)
I'll go to the pool and I'll stay the whole day! (Rosie)
Memories will be made and teachers will be much appreciated. (Emin)
When this mess is over, I'm going to see my fantastic family. (James) Oh—how I can't wait for lockdown to end, so I can go back to having sleepovers with all of my friends! (Manny)
